Minimum age: 12 (younger students by special arrangement)

Description: Taught by the creators and directors of the nationally acclaimed Californios Ranch Roping and Stock Horse Contest (as featured in Western Horseman Magazine), this three day clinic focuses on traditional ranch roping techniques, beginning to advanced instruction on preparation, positioning, roping shots, cattle handling, running rope, and some groundwork for branding and doctoring situations. World class reata man Dave Weaver brings with him over 30 years of purist buckaroo experience, working exclusively and solely as a buckaroo on the biggest and most historic Great Basin outfits. From hackamore, two rein and into the bridle, Dave Weaver teaches ranch roping like none other, focusing on the advancement of a horses training while doing a job. Joined by his wife Gwynn Turnbull Weaver, a teacher of unbounding quality, and an accomplished horsewoman in and out of the show world, the team proves to be an incredible duo- with twice the instructional power of any one clinician. Students will not be disappointed in the quantity and quality of so much one on one instruction. Requirements: Riders need not have previous roping experience but must have enough riding ability to walk, trot, lope and stop their horses.
